Happy Thanksgiving!

Wishing you a wonderful Thanksgiving from all of us at First United Methodist Church!

This Sunday

Sermon Title: The Last Noel: The Promise Fulfilled

Scripture: Luke 21:25-36

Theme: We say Jesus' birth changes the world, but life often feels so hard and the world unchanged. How do we make sense of this? The first Sunday of Advent reminds us that the story of Jesus isn't finished—one day, soon, Christ will come again to set all things right. This sermon will explore the Second Coming and how we can live with hope, purpose, and joy as we wait for the fulfillment of God's promises.

Advent Missions

Love Your Neighbor Van

This December, we invite you to participate in a special offering to support the launch of the Love Your Neighbor van, a new ministry of First United Methodist Church. Starting in January, this van will deliver food, supplies, and compassion to Baton Rouge’s homeless community, sharing the love of Christ with those in need.

In a city where over 1,000 people face homelessness, this ministry aims to do more than provide relief—it seeks to foster dignity, connection, and hope. Inspired by the church’s commitment to “Love3” (love God, love neighbor, and love self), the Love Your Neighbor van will bring faith into action.

Your generosity will ensure this vital mission can make a lasting impact. Please prayerfully consider giving to this special offering throughout December and culminating on Christmas Eve. Together, we can share Christ’s love and transform lives in Baton Rouge.

First Tuesday

For our upcoming First Tuesday on December 3rd, we will be serving at Front Yard Bikes (FYB). Dustin LaFont and FYB need to move from their current location on Government St to a different building across the street so that they can do the renovations and construction project to be able to better support the community in the years to come. If you have not had the opportunity to check out what Dustin and FYB are doing in our community, please take a minute and watch this video.

Advent Classes

Sundays at 9:45 AM | Starting Dec. 1

Rejoicing in a Weary World: 'Encountering God in Everyday Life' Sunday School class will explore important biblical Advent themes using Lectio Divina (divine reading), reading and meditating on Scripture, discussion questions, and small group sharing. Led by Cherri Johnson and Cindy Mann, this class meets in Room 105, Adult Building. No registration required. Questions? Contact Cherri at cherri@firstmethodist.org

Names for the Messiah: 'Journey' Sunday School class will take a deep look into four royal titles—Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, and Prince of Peace. Names for the Messiah ponders each title and how the people understood it then, how Jesus did or did not fulfill the title, and how Christians interpret Jesus as representative of that title. Led by Alvin Smith, this class meets in McKenzie Library, Chapel Building. No registration required. Questions? Contact Alvin Smith at alvinfsmith@gmail.com.

The Christmas Letters: Rev. Don Cottrill will lead the Rings and Ivy Class in the Advent study: The Christmas Letters by Magrey deVega. The study invites us to see the impact of the coming of Christ from the perspective of the first Letter writers in the New Testament—Romans, 1 John, Philippians, and Colossians—who shared the story and the first Christians who received them. The result is an expansive understanding of the Incarnation. This class meets in Adult Building room 117. No registration required.
